

SOPGA Apprentice Winter Education Series (4-part Series)

Program Description:

Interactive seminars designed to encourage and grow the art of Instruction as well as facility program development. This "out of season" education series is geared towards SOPGA Apprentices who are interested in developing their teaching skills in a collegial atmosphere. Two of the SOPGA's top instructors (Sean English and Tim Lambert) will mentor Apprentices on the latest trends in teaching, plus provide useful tips to growing a successful golf lesson business.

Program Dates:

January 6 (9:00 - 12:00 @ Four Bridges Golf Academy)
January 20 (9:00 - 12:00 @ Four Bridges Golf Academy)
February 10 (9:00 - 12:00 @ New Albany CC)
February 24 (9:00 - 12:00 @ Four Bridges Golf Academy)

Cost: $75.00 for Series (or $30 per-session)

Program Instructors: 2007 SOPGA Teacher of the Year, Sean English, Kenwood Country Club & 2006 & 09 SOPGA Teacher of the Year, Tim Lambert, Director of Instruction at Four Bridges CC

January 6

Session #1) Developing a Instructional Program, How to become a better Instructor, Highlights:

1. What are You Wanting to Do
2. Building a Program and Brand
3. Developing a Useful Method
4. Giving a Quality Player Evaluation

January 20

Session #2) Defining Swing Models, Highlights:

1. One Swing Plane
2. Stack and Tilt
3. Two Swing Plane
4. Hybrid

February 10

Session #3) Techniques and Strategies, Highlights:

1. How to Evaluate
2. Defining Swing Type and Concerns
3. Drills and Method
4. Developing a Prodigy

February 24

Session #4) Time to Teach, Highlights:

1. 3 teams of and one lead instructor (During Instruction)
2. Instructor Evaluations

SOPGA Head Professionals, this is a great opportunity to help enhance your Apprentice's teaching skills please encourage them to register for this program.

Interested? Contact the Section Office for more information. Please Note: SPACE IS LIMITED

-Online Registration Available Soon-

Please note, Program fee covers required facility usage fees only, instructors are donating their time and resources. Registration will be available online and by calling the Section Office.